A Reflection for All Saints – Holding up a Mirror

There are people who have a steady flame shining from deep inside them.

This flame is not extinguished when others criticise or ignore them, for it is not dependent on what others think of them; it is what they think of themselves with a quiet certainty.

Each of us can behave in either two ways: we can behave like a sinner or a saint.

We help people more by giving them a favourable image of themselves than by constantly harping on their faults.

The Saints hold up a mirror before us.

In this mirror we get a most favourable image of ourselves.

We see what we are capable of.

All we need is the will to walk

In the light of what we have seen.

Mission Sunday Collection

On behalf of Pope Francis, thank you for supporting World Mission Sunday. Your kindness means that overseas missionaries can continue to share the love of God with some of the world's most marginalised and vulnerable people. If you value the work of overseas missionaries and would like to support their work you can put a donation into an envelope, write Mission Sunday Collection on the front of the envelope and drop it in to the basket during the offertory collection. Next weekend will be the last opportunity to support the Mission Sunday Collection.

Relaunch of "A Sketch of the Life of Rev William Casey P.P. Abbeyfeale"

The Relaunch of "A Sketch of the Life of Rev William Casey P.P. Abbeyfeale" will take place at the Glórach Theatre on Friday 11th of November at 7.30pm. It's been 114 years since J.D Harnett's book on the life of Fr Casey was first published in 1908. A collaborative approach between individuals and interested groups on either side of the Limerick/Kerry border has now resulted in the research and republishing of this iconic biography, along with some additional content and images.

Doors open at 7.00pm and all are welcome.

Basket Collection

Last weekend we reintroduced the offertory basket collection. We are grateful and appreciate for all the contributions that we receive. We thank all those who volunteered and are helping with the basket collection. In order that the collection takes place as quickly as possible we need more collectors. Anyone willing to help should contact Anne O'Mara. We would also like to acknowledge the contributions we receive from parishioners through the donate button on the parish website, by direct debit at the bank and by annual contributions.

Your ongoing support is very much appreciated.

Direct debit system is also available contact the sacristy for a form.
