A Word from Pope Francis

"I urge the members of the Church to take up the Lenten journey with enthusiasm, sustained by almsgiving, fasting and prayer. If, at times, the flame of charity seems to die in our own hearts, know that this is never the case in the heart of God!"

Lourdes invalid Collection will take place on 23/24th March

Schools Collections will take place on 30th /31st March

Message for Lent from Bishop Brendan Leahy

Lent is the season when the whole Church goes on a forty-day retreat. I would like to suggest that we take holiness as a theme for Lent this year. I do so because Pope Francis has recently written a wonderful letter on holiness reminding us of its importance. At a time when we are getting used to pastoral units and new pastoral arrangements in our Diocese, it is good to keep our eye on what ultimately matters – our holiness. I would recommend you read Pope Francis' letter entitled, "Rejoice and Be Glad" (Gaudete et Exsultate). It's available on the internet or in religious book shops. I will draw on it for my Pastoral Letter this Lent. The Pope has felt prompted by the Holy Spirit to re-propose to all of us the call to holiness in a practical way for our time. The voice of the Holy Spirit speaking through the Pope is saying to each one of us: "be holy, for I am holy" (Lev 11: 44; cf 1 Pet 1:16). Copies of Bishop Leahy's Pastoral Letter for Lent 2019 "This is what God wants of us - Our Holiness", are available as you leave the church this morning. Please take one home with you.

Trócaire Lenten Campaign for 2019

This year's Trócaire Lenten campaign focuses on land rights and specifically the stories of Patricia, Maya and Maria who all feature on this year's Trócaire box. Patricia is an 8-year-old from Uganda whose family's land is being stolen from them, bit by bit. Maya is a 10-year-old who is living in one of Lebanon's refugee camps after her family fled from the Syrian war. Maria is a nine-year-old girl from Guatemala whose family's land was violently stolen from them and their home burned down. Please ensure that you have a Trocaire Box for this Lent, so that we can assist Patricia, Maya and Maria and their families and thousands of families like them in their struggle to live life and to have the same opportunities that we are so blessed to have here in Ireland. Confirmation in the Parish

Congratulations to the sixth class children whose received their Confirmation last Tuesday. We thank all who helped us to celebrate the Sacrament. We pray the Holy Spirit will bless each and everyone of them in year ahead.

Lenten Reflection 14th March @ 7.30pm

Dr.Jessie Roger Lenten reflection 2nd evening Templeglantine 14th March at 7.30pm in the Hall. All parishioners are welcome
We are privileged to have a woman who has made a remarkable journey in terms of Geography and Faith. She started life in South Africa as a Reformed Presbyterian "with a Baptist mother" and lead by the providence of God, human curiosity and a deep desire to be faithful, she came to work and live in Ireland, and then, followed three of her family into the Catholic Church.
Dr Jessie Rogers lectures in Scripture at St Patrick's College, Maynooth.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

There are some places vacant on the chart. Adoration begins on Monday at 8am for 13 hours a day 8am –9pm. Monday to Friday.
The chart is beside the tabernacle if you wish to sign for an hour.
