Twenty fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"I am grateful to Christ Jesus, the Lord, who has strengthened me, because he considered me faithful and has appointed me to his service." (1Tim. 1:12) St. Paul drew lessons from his own life. He recognised that he was far from perfect but God strengthened him and chose him to be his apostle to the Gentiles. God still calls imperfect people and appoints them to work in his service. If you believe God is asking you to assist him in this great work why not call: Fr. Leslie McNamara (Limerick Diocesan Vocations Director) at 061-414624 or 087-202-8189 or mailto:

lesliemcnamara@eircom.net to discern whether or not you may have a vocation.

Prayer: Lord, we pray for all those making plans for their lives; may they be open to hearing your call to priesthood and religious life.
