*They are not gone from us but gone before us.
 Ní imithe uainn atá siad, ach imithe romhainn.*

November is a time for remembering and praying for our loved ones who have gone before us and whose loss we feel. It is a time when we are particularly conscious of those in our parishes who are grieving and all those families who have lost loved ones in the past year. We mark this time of year in our parishes with events like the blessing of the graves, the celebration of remembrance services as well as commemorating All Saints' and All Souls' Day.

Belief in the resurrection of the dead is an essential part of Christian faith. It implies a particular understanding of the unescapable mystery of death. Death is the end of our earthly life, but 'not of our existence' (St Ambrose) since the soul is immortal. Our lives are measured by time, in the course of which we change, grow old and, as with all living beings on earth, death seems like the normal end of life. For all Christians, death is the passage to the fullness of true life. During the celebration of a funeral Mass we hear these words from the Preface of the Mass 'For your faithful, O Lord, life has changed not ended; while our earthly dwelling is destroyed, a new and eternal dwelling is prepared for us in Heaven'.

1 November – All Saints Day

All Saints' Day, also known as the Feast or Solemnity of All Saints, is celebrated every year on 1 November. On this day, which is a Holy Day of Obligation, we honour all of the Saints and ask them to pray for us. Mass on All Saints Day - Vigil Mass on Mon 31st at 7.00pm. Mass on All Saints Day Tuesday 1st of November at 10.00am and 7.00pm

2 November – All Souls' Day

All Souls' Day or more formally 'the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed' is a solemn celebration commemorating all of those who have died and is observed on Wednesday 2 November. Mass on All Souls Day at 10.00am and 7.00pm. An indulgence, applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory, is granted to the faithful, who visit a cemetery and pray, even if only mentally, for the departed. The indulgence is plenary each day from November 1-8; The plenary indulgence is earned under the usual conditions: Going to Confession, receiving Holy Communion and praying for the Pope's intentions (usually one Our Father and the Creed or Hail Mary).

A Prayer of Remembrance

God, thank you for the special people in our lives whom we are remembering in a special way during the month of November.
 We thank you for being a compassionate God who walks with us in our dark moments of grief and loneliness.
 We are thankful for all who continue to love and support us through our grief.
 Lord, continue to be a light for us, giving us hope, direction and courage.
 May we now live our lives treasuring the memories of those special people we have known and loved and help us to bring light and hope to others.
 We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Donate through the Parish website

You can now make a donation to the parish, through the parish website. Click on to the parish website at www.abbeyfealeparish.ie and you will see a Donate button on the right-hand side on the front page of the website. Just follow the instructions and you will be able to make a donation to the parish.

Eucharistic Adoration:

The Parish Adoration Committee are now establishing a second day of Adoration in the parish beginning on All Souls Day Wednesday 2nd of November. If you are willing to give some of your time to this devotion we ask you to sign the schedule which is located on a table at the rear of the sanctuary area. This additional time for Adoration can only take place if there are enough people (at least 4) in the Blessed Sacrament church during each hour of Adoration. Perhaps parishioners would consider taking on this commitment for the month of November the month of prayer for the Holy Souls.
