A Prayer for Priests

Keep them. I pray Thee, dearest Lord,
 Keep them, for they are thine-
 Thy priests whose lives burn out before
 Thy consecrated shrine.
 Keep them for they are in the world
 Though from the world apart,
 When earthly pleasures tempt, allure,
 Shelter them in Thy heart.
 Keep them, and comfort them in hours
 Of loneliness and pain
 When all their life is sacrifice
 For souls seems but in vain.
 Keep them, and O remember Lord
 They have no one but Thee
 Yet they have only human hearts,
 With human frailty.
 Keep them as spotless as the Host,
 That daily, they caress-
 Their every thought and word and deed,
 Deign, dearest Lord, to bless.

July 3rd 2016. Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

"The harvest is rich but the labourers are few: therefore ask the harvest-master to send workers to his harvest." (Luke 10:1-9) Since Jesus immersed himself totally in our humanity, He never used his Godly power to make life easier for himself. He found the going tough moving from town to town and asked his disciples to pray to the Father to help him in his missionary efforts. In our situation today, we too need to pray for vocations so that Our Heavenly Father will assist us in spreading the good news to God's people.

If you feel that God may be calling you to help Him in this work, why not contact: Fr. Leslie McNamara (Limerick Diocesan Vocations Director) at 061-414624 or 087-202-8189 or <mailto:lesliemcnamara@eircom.net> to discern whether or not you may have a vocation.

Prayer: We pray for all who may feel the stirring of a vocation to the priesthood or religious life within their hearts, that they may respond positively to that call.
